

REEL AFRICA

at rutgers

is proud to present a talk by

KENNETH HARROW
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

TRASH!: A NEW LOOK AT AFRICAN CINEMA

followed by a screening of

THE HERO

O HERÓI / The Hero (Angola; 2004)

Directed by Zézé Gamboa

Portuguese with English subtitles

World Cinema Dramatic Jury Prize, Sundance Film Festival

The film follows a diverse group of Angolans--a disabled war veteran, a prostitute, an orphaned schoolboy and his teacher--as they seek to come to terms with the legacy of their nation's 40 years of civil war, and create new lives for themselves.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 24 at 7 P.M. in the Graduate Student Lounge, CAC TALK BEGINS AT 7 P.M.; screening will follow at approximately 8 P.M.

Many thanks to: Center for African Studies; Cinema Studies Program; International Programs; Transliterations Program; Institute for Research on Women; Department of French; Department of Spanish and Portuguese; Graduate Student Association; Honors Program

For complete festival information: <http://www.cinemastudies.rutgers.edu>

FILM FESTIVAL 2008-09

