RADIO SIERRA LEONE: Media, Public Broadcasting, and Democracy

Wednesday, November 11th / 7:00 p.m.

4th Floor Teleconference Lecture Hall
Alexander Library, College Avenue Campus

Andrew Kromah is the globally honored pioneer of independent radio in Sierra Leone and Chairman of the Independent Radio Network. He is famed for his reporting work on local police corruption, the establishment of a community affairs department, and a voter education program, "Democracy Now." He is actively building public radio stations throughout Sierra Leone, Liberia, and Guinea.
