François-Xavier Fauvelle is an Africanist historian and archaeologist. Fauvelle is Senior Researcher at the CNRS, affiliated with the University of Toulouse, France. He was the director of the French Center for Ethiopian Studies in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, and of TRACES in Toulouse, one of the leading international laboratories in archaeology. His research focuses on ancient and medieval Africa. He is the author or editor of 15 books and the author of around a hundred academic articles. His book The Golden Rhinoceros: Histories of the African Middle Ages (Paris: 2013), which received the Grand Prix du Livre d’histoire (the main French award for academic history books), will be released in English by Princeton University Press in December 2018.

Special thanks to Professor Cathryn Townsend for hosting the lecture in her “Anthropology of Africa” course (01:070:243).